TAPPI member pulp and paper industry valve and pump suppliers

The following companies are TAPPI members who supply valves or pumps to the pulp and paper industry. This list is in addition to the information provided by the Valve Manufacturers Association of America (VMA). The list includes the company name, address, and phone numbers as provided by those companies. TAPPI assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of the original material. The information is provided as a service to TAPPI members and does not imply an endorsement of one company over another. Included with the contact information is a coded list of the types of valves the companies provide, using the abbreviations found at the beginning of this listing.
